WELCOME

Welcome to our last edition of 2024.

It has been another full on year of events for our villages, so much to see, do and take part in.

Before we sign off this year, there are many more events to squeeze into the last 2 months.

The Ockley Society have their annual Bonfire and Firework Display (P9) on Saturday November 9th followed by Carols on the Green (P6) on Saturday December 7th.

Before Carols, during the afternoon of Dec 7th QRMW (P8) are hosting Christmas for all the family in their woods. They also have a memorial service (P11) on Monday Nov 11th.

Walliswood Village Hall (P12) have a Halloween evening on Thursday 31st October and their carols on December 7th.

Ockley Village Hall (P18) have Remembrance Sunday teas on Nov 10th plus hosting a Village Christmas Lunch (P13) on Monday Dec 9th.

There are many more events throughout the magazine including plays, choral rehearsals & Christmas Fairs.

For those villages who attend the Pavilion Café each Wednesday morning there is a report on the fantastic amount you have all raised on page 25.

The rest of this edition is full of stories both current and historic for you to enjoy.

From all at Woof we would like to wish everyone who reads, contributes,^o and advertises a wonderful Christmas and New Year.

Alan Hardy

The Ockley Village Facebook page is here to encourage local businesses, charities, societies and clubs to share their news with the villagers of Ockley as well as keeping the community connected. We look forward to hearing from you.

WOOF NEEDS YOU!

Woof is still in need of someone to join our band of volunteers.

Currently the team consists of Gordon who looks after the finances, Susie who liaises with the advertisers and takes care of revenue, Jane who handles all things distribution, Leslie who makes sure what we produce is readable and Iain who is our designer and layout wizard.

We are in need of a publisher: This person will be responsible for the overall running of Woof, working with the team to get each issue to print on time. The role involves monitoring the advertising e-mail, responding and liaising with the team to help new advertisers get onboard, sourcing and routing of articles and information from proof to print.

This role doesn't require huge amounts of time, but it does need commitment as each issue is timed and these processes must happen by certain dates.

There will be plenty of training and help for the new team member. If this is something you would like to help with, please contact Alan

– amh@amhi.co.uk

Woof cannot continue without the help of our wonderful team of volunteers.

Carols on the Green

Saturday 7th December

You know that Christmas is getting close when the tree on the Green comes alight.

Everyone is invited to join us for a Social Event for the official 'lighting of the tree'. Please join us for refreshments, a seasonal sing song and a much hoped for visit from Father Christmas himself.

There is no charge for this, we just want to have everyone together.

There will be a collection for charity, details on the night.

OCKLEY VILLAGE HALL – NEEDS YOU

We are very fortunate to have a wonderful village hall, now over 100 years since it was built. Its past is important, a memorial to the fallen of the village, a historic building. For the present time it is important as a space, where the community can to come together celebrate, learn, entertain and create memories. Its future is in our hands to make sure the Hall is self sufficient, fit for purpose and here for future generations of Ockley folk.

The village hall is run as a trust, and the committee as custodians are there to protect, manage and run the hall for our community.

The committee of the Village Hall are looking for help to bolster its numbers and share the tasks. We have some exciting ideas to adapt to the changing use of halls, modernise to make more tech friendly, increase energy efficiency, and become self sufficiency.

People with time to commit to the hall for regular meetings, getting into projects, skills in maintenance, admin, bookkeeping, grant application experience etc all very welcome.

THE TEDDY BEAR FAMILY TREE

1. Polar Bear
2. American Black Bear
3. Malayan Sun Bear
4. Giant Panda
5. Asian Black Bear
6. Grizzly Bear
7. Spectacled Bear
8. Sloth Bear

*Teddy Bears, lovingly, have been placed under Christmas Trees

Bears were honoured by the cultures of many early civilisations. The Vikings shared many legends and the Celts shared tales about their intelligence and prowess.

Bears were recognised across the globe, appearing in a wide variety of habitats.

Bear Baiting was a popular sport that both Henry VIII and Elizabeth I enjoyed. The Bear was, while chained to a post, defending himself.

Shakespeare had a connection with the Bear. It was believed (?) that the Bear which Shakespeare used in his play The Winter's Tale, was brought to stage from The Bear Garden in London. Bears remain today in Shakespeare's plays as they did over 400 years ago.

In 1835, Bear Baiting was banned in England.

By the 19th century, stuffed toy bears were made not only for children, but for adults as well for comfort.

The name Teddy Bear may have come from the youngest President of the United States, Teddy Roosevelt. When President Roosevelt was on a bear hunting party, he spotted a very young bear and refused to harm it in any way.

Did you know that Bear Cubs can squeal, bawl and scream? When comfortable, they can even make a humming tune.

TAPESTRY DAY CLUB ACHIEVES CHARITABLE STATUS

This transformational milestone will allow Tapestry Day Club to provide affordable care for many more older people living with early-stage dementia and in social isolation, including those with modest means.

Tapestry Day Club – which has hosts across Surrey and West Sussex who invite guests into their family homes – has become a charity after launching five years ago as a not-for-profit enterprise.

This significant achievement will increase the organisation's ability to provide its high-quality support and give carers – usually family members – much-needed respite time.

Co-founder Anderley Wade said: “We will be able to keep our costs down and expand our services to those who need it most. The transition became necessary after we surpassed the VAT threshold last year. We initially absorbed this additional burden, but it was unsustainable long-term. It will simplify fundraising efforts, too, granting us Gift Aid tax relief, which allows us to reclaim an extra 25% on every donation.”

The migration from a community interest company (CIC) to a charitable incorporated organisation (CIO) was a lengthy, complex process requiring extensive paperwork, legal assistance and the recruitment of three trustees.

Chair of trustees is eminent health-and-social-care expert Rosemary Pavoni, who has nearly 60 years of experience in this field. She ran a care home in Horsham for more than 20 years and now advises, supports and lobbies the Government on behalf of people needing social care.

“I believe passionately in ensuring that people receive the best care possible, especially those with dementia, which is why I am delighted to be chair of Tapestry Day Club,” she said.

Co-founder Clare Jones announced more news: “In recognition of our new status, we have launched a brand-new website, which allows us to accept donations and work in greater collaboration with donors and funders. No donation is too small and every penny counts towards helping others financially less able to access valuable support.

“We look forward to making a significant impact in our community and helping older people live independently for as long as possible.”

About Tapestry Day Club

Dementia is something that will affect one in two of us in our lifetime. As yet, there is no cure, but it has been proven that the progress of this horrendous disease can be slowed down. That is why Tapestry Day Club was founded five years ago, to help people with dementia in Surrey and West Sussex live well and independently for as long as possible by banishing social isolation, a known factor in the progress of the illness.

We do this by enabling day care within the comfort of the family homes of Tapestry Day Club’s hosts, who provide transport, a home-cooked, two-course lunch and optional memory-boosting entertainment up to three times per week, allowing friendships to flourish.

This also gives carers – usually partners or other family members – invaluable and much-needed respite time.

NEWS FROM THE BELFRY

Year's End

As we approach the end of the year it is wonderful to report that we have a new member in the band. He started learning earlier this year and has been ringing for Church Services for some time now, including his first wedding.

Remembrance Sunday is on November 10th and we will be ringing on half-muffled bells as customary from 10am ahead of the service at 10.45 and act of Remembrance at 11am. Ringing is generally considered a joyous sound associated with calling the congregation to Sunday Service and for celebrating happy events such as weddings or anniversaries. Half-muffled ringing on the other hand is a special sound for sad and solemn occasions, and this experience will be another first for our newest ringer.

The muffle is a leather pad which you may have seen in a previous item when we had ours repaired by the Cranleigh Cobbler. Each muffle is strapped to the clapper where it strikes the bell resulting in a much softer sound. Half-muffled means that the clapper is muffled on one side only, resulting in alternate loud and soft blows: all the bells sound loud for one row and then soft for the next. The result is a melancholic sound, a bit like an echo, which is also used for funerals on request as an alternative to tolling a single bell.

As this magazine also covers the festive season may we take this opportunity to wish you all A Very Happy Christmas. We are expecting to ring for the service on Christmas Day at 10am (ringing starts half an hour beforehand) but we will not be holding our usual Wednesday evening practice, much as we all love to ring. We may keep the practice on the following Wednesday though, as it will be New Year's Day, depending on individual availability.

If you would like to come and watch or have a go and perhaps learn to ring for a particular event in the future please come along and join us on a practice night. We meet on Wednesdays, 7.45 pm to 9.15 pm

For more details call Sue on 01306 627168, email ockleybellringers@btinternet.com

THE PAVILION CAFÉ

Every Wednesday
Ockley Cricket Club Pavilion
9am – 12 midday

(inc. Community Fridge 10.30am – 11.15am)

Come and enjoy a warm welcome and a delicious range of homemade cakes and savouries – including gluten/dairy free – with bacon butties every last Wednesday of the month, and freshly made teas and coffees.

The Pavilion Café was originally the idea of Kindred Spirits, the women's outreach group from Ockley, Okewood and Forest Green Parish, 12 years ago. Run by a team of volunteers, it has raised more than £20,000 supporting charities, local charitable causes and Ockley events. Thanks to our customers' generous donations we've recently been able to support ...

- Air Ambulance Charity Kent Surrey Sussex
- Stroke Association
- Dementia Charity Run
- Young at Heart
- Ockley Village Teas
- Ockley Toddlers
- Amber Foundation
- Local hardship payments
- Local Parish Church projects

THE PAVILION CAFÉ RAISES MORE THAN £20,000!

In the twelve years since The Pavilion Café first opened its doors, it is proud to announce it has raised and donated more than £20,000 supporting local and national charities and Ockley groups, all thanks to its loyal customers and volunteers!

The Pavilion Café was originally the brainchild of Jenny Reed: "I was at Spring Harvest with Belinda Kerry where I attended a seminar about Christians serving the community. The next morning, I woke up and said to Belinda, 'God thinks we should start a café!' So, we formed a group of local ladies called Kindred Spirits, and we were off!

"It was important we used real coffee in china mugs and provided homemade cakes. I thought we might get a dozen or so lonely people coming, and we could knit! We provided wool, needles and sewing stuff to make fabric squares for bedcovers but, guess what? No one wanted to knit or sew, everyone just wanted to chat, drink and eat! I'm so very happy it's still going 12 years on!"

Village Greens has generously supported the café from the beginning and donates the delicious coffee, and the Kindred Spirits volunteers bake the lovely cakes, scones and quiches.

It's impossible to mention all the many worthy causes that have benefitted over the years from the generous donations, but to mention just a few ...

Donations to national charities include: Anthony Nolan Trust, Christian Aid, Crisis at Christmas, Disaster Emergency Committee (DEC), Dementia UK, Finlay's Touch, Kidney Research UK, Macmillan Cancer Support, Myra's Wells, RNLI, Stroke Association, Salvation Army.

Local charities and groups include: Kent Surrey and Sussex Air Ambulance, Amber Foundation, Ockley Mothers and Toddlers, Young at Heart, Village Teas, Lent Lunches, Ockley Society, Ockley Cricket Club, the local parish churches and hardship cases.

A recent welcome addition to Wednesday mornings is the Mid Surrey Community Fridges, who set up outside The Pavilion Café. Their aim is to reduce food waste and to support local people. They collect unsold food from local businesses which is destined to go to landfill and make it available to local communities for a small donation.

LATE SUMMER MUSICAL SOIRÉE

Forest Greeners were out in force in mid-September when the Friends of Holy Trinity hosted its second ever late summer musical soirée. The packed crowd were certainly older but also, happily, still wise enough to fill the church once again with laughter, singing and even a little dancing...

First up were Isosceles, the musical duo of Dave Marsden and Pat Abernethy who entertained us with a variety of songs and a similar range of antics. Whether it was a lucky dip of song titles or one side against the other, the pair even dragged an audience member into the act; a rendition of the laughing policeman that few will forget!!

Hot on the heels of Isosceles came local favourites Bill and Oscar Cuthbert plus an unexpected and memorable turn on the trombone from near-neighbour Tim Riggins. With the church turned into The Roundhouse, we were treated to a stream of hits from pretty much every decade – really something for everyone. It wasn't long before foot tapping became swaying and then full-blown dancing in the aisles as music won the day. 'Enjoy Yourself' was a fitting finale to the entertainment, followed by plenty of chat and more laughter over Prosecco, beer and nibbles in the marquee outside.

Not only was the concert fabulous fun, it also raised a tremendous £1,700 for church funds. Our beautiful church needs constant attention as well as, over the next decade or so, a new roof, so every penny counts. Thanks to our audience, my fellow trustees, the generous donors of raffle prizes (Tanhurst Estate Vineyard, Kingfisher at Abinger, The Parrot, The Bull plus flowers from Vicky) and, of course, the two acts for a wonderful, memorable evening.

OCKLEY HISTORY

Out of the blue (internet!) I received via the Vicar information about the Manor of Ockley.

The informant has been studying medieval ecclesiastical land holding vehicles and conveyancing.

In 787 in the charter of Offa, King of Mercia and Cynthia, his Queen, grant to Abbot Ceolnodus (Chertsey) a number of manors including the Manor of Ockley. These manors were originally granted to Erkenwaldus, Abbot and founder of Chertsey Abbey by Sheriff Frithwaldus. Chertsey Abbey was founded in 666 in the reign of King Egbert.

The grant includes: meadow; pasture; field; ponds and other water courses and was specifically for the souls of Offa's daughters.

Ockley is referred to as AEcleaht.

Less than 300 years later, Domesday Book records the manor of Ockley as owned by Almer before it was transferred to a Norman. Almer was either a common name or very powerful as he is recorded as owning 179 manors. But he did own Hartshurst, just up the hill from Ockley, and Ockham which is thought to be named after the same person, ley being field and ham being village.

The Norman owner was Ralph who held the Manor from Richard, son of Count Gilbert. Ralph maybe also be a common name as he holds land in 5 other manors in Surrey but not nearby. Richard held 32 Manors in Surrey, some directly and some delegated to others.

All the land was owned by the King, William after the conquest and Edward before (Earl Harold is mentioned rarely in Domesday Book as the Normans considered him a usurper!) and delegated in return for services. King William owned 19 manors in Surrey directly including Guildford, Kingston and Dorking (which included Capel).

Maybe the Chertsey Abbey records will record when ownership was transferred from Chertsey Abbey. I checked in the History of Surrey written by Manning and Bray published in 1809 which confirmed the founding details of Chertsey Abbey but includes a splendid note that 'Mr Salmon objects to the chronology because King Egbert was not King of England until 800. Mr Manning confirms that but says it was Egbert King of Kent in 666'. Presumably a different Egbert!

There is no mention of Ockley Manor in Chertsey's landholdings which are confirmed as continuing until King William I, when we know from Domesday Book that Ralph owned the manor.

I told the informant about the record of the battle of Ockley (851) in the Saxon Chronicle as Aclea. He referred to land dispute in 844 where the parties to the case were summoned to a synod at Aeclea which is described as praeclarus. The Anglo-Saxons called places clarus (illustrious) where a significant battle had taken place and praeclarus as most illustrious!

The land dispute relates to land in East Kent, where Beornthytha, widow of Oswulf, Earl of East Kent established her right to inherit her husband's land and give it to Christ Church (Canterbury), The location of Aeclea where the synod was held is not specified.

Were there two battles of Ockley, one before 844 and one in 851? Or was the earlier battle elsewhere?

The boundary between the Kingdoms of Mercia and Wessex were somewhat fluid in the early medieval period. Readers will recall that the battle in 851 was fought between the men of Wessex and the Vikings. The capital of Mercia had already been sacked by the Vikings as had London.

I said in the earlier article that the Vikings were thought to be going to Winchester to sack the capital of Wessex. But I have recently discovered that the capital of Wessex was at Wilton, just beyond Salisbury at that date. Wilton was sacked by the Vikings in 871 and King Alfred moved the capital to Winchester later. Alfred was born in 848!

CHRISTMAS HAMPER APPEAL

We are coming to the time of the year when thoughts begin to turn to Christmas. For many this is a time of excitement and anticipation, but for others it brings worry and anxiety. Several families are struggling with the cost of living, which means that day-to-day expenses are a constant challenge.

For some years Capel Church has been giving Christmas hampers to local families who might otherwise go without. If anyone feels that they would like to contribute, there is a list (on the table by the church entry door) of suggested items. Please add your name and the items to the list, and then a fortnight before Christmas there will be a box in church in which to deposit them. Anything provided will help to make a better Yuletide for these families.

Jessie Sutcliffe.

UPDATE ON QRMW

It's been a very busy summer for us, both at the Quick Response Memorial Woodland, and with our attendance at events offsite. It all kicked off with our 10th Anniversary since the woodland was officially opened on 1st June followed by our attendance at WestFest, Capel Military Vehicle Show and VE/VJ Day celebrations at Farnham. All of which were very enjoyable days out with our QRMW stand and an opportunity to meet lots of people and let them know about our Charity and how we help Veterans in need. Two amazing musical events, firstly 'Music in the Marsh' hosted by The Saddlers Arms in Send Marsh on 13th July raised £1200 and secondly 'Rocking on the River' on 25th August hosted by The Crown and Anchor in Old Woking raised £2121. We thank the landlords who hosted these events and of course to the bands who all gave up their time to entertain us free of charge, to raise funds for our Veterans. These events of course would not be as successful as they have been without those who came on the days to support us.

We now look towards the next event at the woodland, which brings its own beauty when the leaves turn golden and the woodland floor gets covered in a carpet of leaves, plus a variety of fungi pop up all over the place. Our next event to take place at the Memorial Woodland will be our Annual Remembrance Service on Monday 11th November to which everyone is invited. Two local schools are attending to join in our service. So please come along and join us around the Monument for the Service at 10.45.

Then we will look forward to our very popular Christmas at the Woodland event which this year will take place on Saturday 7th December. Put it in your diaries and let Debbie (debbiehornblow@yahoo.co.uk) know the names, gender and ages of the children so that we can get appropriate presents from Father Christmas. This event is a favourite with families and includes a Christmas Treasure Hunt, visit from Father Christmas and BBQ plus Grand Christmas Raffle and many other stalls/games for the family to enjoy. All proceeds go to our Memorial Fund to assist our Veterans in times of difficulty. The cost for each child to enter the treasure hunt, and to visit and receive a gift from Father Christmas is £8 each.

The woodland is always open to everyone to visit at anytime. If we are there then the museum is also open and the kettle is on but if we cannot be there on the day you visit, you can park at the front and walk in through the side gate.

We at QRMW look forward to you visiting us.

THE FIGHT IS NOT OVER TO STOP GATWICK'S PLANS FOR A NEW RUNWAY

Communities of Sussex, Surrey and Kent, who have worked so hard to oppose a new runway at Gatwick Airport, now wait until 27th November for the official decision by the government's Planning Inspector. This recommendation will then go to the Secretary of State for Transport, the Rt Hon Louise Haigh MP, who should announce the final decision on 27th February.

"We now wait – but not in silence, as we continue to counter the Gatwick Airport's propaganda machine whilst engaging with airport management on other issues faced daily by communities" said a spokesperson for CAGNE, the umbrella aviation community and environment group.

"A new runway by private investment may initially seem attractive to the new government but, if permitted, the mess that is the applicant's non-committal stance on surface access, air quality, carbon and amenities will undoubtedly fall to the public sector to solve and fund, whilst the local communities face the adverse consequences.

"During the hearings and submissions, Gatwick management and team have shown contempt for the concerns put forward by residents, experts and local authorities. They have declined or avoided responding to the facts on key points raised – the impacts on air quality and climate change from such a vast increase in plane movements, or the lack of surface transport to take flyers, workers and freight off residential roads. They also showed utter disrespect in their attitude towards the aviation noise issues, both now and with the proposed aircraft movements of 386,000 a year," commented a spokesperson for CAGNE.

"Thanks to residents funding CAGNE, a strong team of top King's Counsel, planning barrister and solicitor, along with qualified experts in aviation noise, surface transport, air quality, climate change, waste, and sewerage, were able to meet the Gatwick team head-to-head, at each hearing and in writing, about why Gatwick Airport owners should not be allowed to go ahead with a new runway which is simply not policy.

"The airport management has continued to progress the Modernisation of Airspace (which was not permitted as part of the new runway planning hearings), and CAGNE believe they need it to meet the desired movements off a new runway. These additional changes could see many more people impacted by new flight paths due to Gatwick's desire for growth south of the airport.

"Let's be clear – we expect Gatwick to pitch communities against each other early next year when they release their planned flight paths, whether with a new runway or just the one as operated today", concluded CAGNE.

PACKING UP THE NATION, SAVING LONDON'S MUSEUMS AND GALLERIES – Dr Caroline Shenton

Dr Caroline Shenton is an archivist and historian. She was formerly Director of the Parliamentary Archives in London, and before that was a senior archivist at the National Archives. Her book The Day Parliament Burned Down won the Political Book of the Year Award in 2013 and Mary Beard called it 'microhistory at its absolute best'. Its acclaimed sequel, Mr Barry's War, about the rebuilding of the Palace of Westminster, was a Book of the Year in 2016 for The Daily Telegraph and BBC History Magazine and was described by Lucy Worsley as "a real jewel, finely wrought and beautiful". Caroline was Political Writer in Residence at Gladstone's Library in 2017, has appeared at the Cheltenham, Hay and Henley literary festivals and on BBC radio and TV. Caroline's third book, National Treasures, will tell the extraordinary and sometimes hilarious stories behind the saving of London's art and museum collections in World War Two.

We utilise many skills, not just on stage, carpenters, artists, technical, musicians, props, coffee makers, cake bakers, wardrobe, publicity, finance to name but a few roles. If interested, please do call our Chairman for a friendly chat. Martin Pratt, Chairman, 01306 628155

ONE ACT PLAYS AT PEASLAKE

The One Act Plays will be performed on Thursday 14th, Friday 15th and Saturday 16th November at 7.30pm at the Peaslake Village Hall.

“Quake”, by Anthony Booth and directed by the talented Sarah Trotman, tells the story of 5 women isolated by an earthquake in South America. They take shelter but a further quake adds more fear and, under the strain, relationships are brought into question and tensions rise. If anyone would like more information about this play, please contact Sarah on s.v.trotman@gmail.com

The other one act play, “Grass”, has already been cast with rehearsals underway and is written by local writer Tinx Newton and directed by Tricia Monk. It will have it's first showing in Peaslake! It is written as a comedy but also deals with family relationships and morals. Grass can mean many things: - the green vegetation found in lawns, to inform on someone, or the grass found in the cannabis plant.

Tickets cost £12 each and are on sale now at the Box Office on www.peaslakeplayers.co.uk Doors will open at 7pm and the well stocked Bar will be open from then so do come early and buy a drink to take to your seat. For more information, please contact Jill Golding on jill.golding@me.com

Towards Christmas

With the Festive Season fast approaching, Capel Choral Society is preparing music for its Christmas Concert. This will feature East Anglian composer Alan Bullard's charming A Light in the Stable, which consists of settings of popular carols interspersed with words from Christmas sections of the Bible.

The programme will also include popular Carols for choir and audience.

The Concert will be held in the church of St John the Baptist, Capel, on Monday, 2nd December at 7.30pm. Tickets are £7.50 which includes mulled wine and mince pies. Please apply to contact details below.

The following Sunday, the 8th December from 2 to 4pm, the Choir will host its popular 'Carols & Cakes', also in the church. The audience are invited to choose carols to join in singing with the choir, and a tasty selection of cakes will be ready for sampling. There will also be a raffle with proceeds to charity. Entry is free but a donation for cakes will be welcome.

At its rehearsal on the 21st October Capel Choral had a small celebration of its 120th anniversary, and there was a display of documents charting its long history. The Choir hopes to be able to celebrate future notable anniversaries but to do so it has an urgent need to recruit new singers, so do consider giving choral singing a try with Capel Choral Society – no audition is required, just come along and join in. Singing in a choir gives a sense of community with fellow singers and has proven health benefits. New singers will be particularly welcome to join in the New Year to learn Elgar's Dream of Gerontius for the Leith Hill Music Festival in April 2025.

Rehearsals start at 7.30pm on Monday evenings and take place in Capel's Memorial Hall.

For details of the Choir and for concert tickets, contact Rosemary Goddard:

rosemary.goddard25@gmail.com , or telephone 01306 711259.
